

Sponsored by Center for Freight & Infrastructure Research & Education (CFIRE) at UW Madison
Coordinated by Michigan Technological University, with assistance from University of Toledo, at The Maritime Academy of Toledo

Great Lakes Maritime Transportation Teacher Workshop

Saturday, May 11, 2013

AGENDA

- 7:45 AM Teachers arrive at Detroit Math & Science Center/International Women's Academy (9026 Woodward Ave., park in gated lot on Owen Street side of building)
- 8:00 AM Teachers depart on bus
- 9:00 AM Teachers arrive at University of Toledo - Coffee & bagels (2600 Dorr Street; will meet us at the front door.)
- 9:15 AM How Great Lakes Shipping Fits into Global Transportation of Goods
--Richard Martinko, University of Toledo
- 9:45 AM Great Lakes Maritime Education Chest Activities: Cargoes & Products
--Joan Chadde, Michigan Tech
- 10:00 AM Depart for Port
- 10:30 AM Visit Port Facilities -- Midwest Terminals
- 11:45 AM Lunch (return to (Univ. of Toledo, 2600 Dorr Street)
- Noon Overview of Great Lakes Shipping & Maritime Careers
-- Richard Brown, Director of Maritime Studies, The Maritime Academy of Toledo and licensed Captain
- 1:30 PM U.S. Coast Guard Maritime Shipping Responsibilities – Mr. Chris Hovland
(USCG Station Toledo on Maumee R., 3900 North Summit Street)
- 2:30 PM Future home of National Great Lakes Maritime Museum & SS Col. James M. Schoonmaker Museum Ship (1701 Front Street)
--Chris Gilchrist, Great Lakes Historical Society
- 3:15 PM Depart Toledo (on the bus)
  - In small groups, brainstorm: "How to Integrate Maritime Transportation into K-12 Curriculum"
  - Evaluations
- 4:15 PM Arrive in Detroit